

Products

The team at Splice Communications provides you with PBX/Hybrid phone systems, integrated voice messaging, voice over internet protocol (VoIP), local & long distance carrier service and enhanced virtual web conferencing. Splice Communications provides clients with "end to end" solutions designed to deliver economical, long-term business sense. All products are fully warranted, complete with training and lifelong service.

Splice offers a complete line of equipment products and services, which include:

- Premier PBX/Hybrid phone systems
- Fully integrated voice messaging
- Free Standing PC based Voice Mail
- Voice and Data carrier service
- VoIP — Voice over Internet Protocol with single cable to the desktop.
- PBX Wireless Communication Equipment needs
- Unified Messaging
- Voice and Data cabling
- Next Generation communications systems
- Enhanced Virtual Web Conferencing

Providing our clients with one stop resource shopping for all their telecom needs and options.

VOICE AND DATA CARRIER SERVICES

Splice Communications is committed to providing value-added services designed to enhance your overall communications experience through one resource shopping. Whether your connectivity needs range from local T-1 voice service to OC-48 IP capacity. You benefit from Splice Communications turn-key solutions. Splice Communications recommends and implements carrier Services designed to meet the needs of our business clients.

Splice Communications, LLC
Telephony Engineering & Services
Providing Solutions for Everchanging Options